

Shelton State
Community College
presents Storyteller DWe Williams as she weaves folktales that leave her audiences spellbound. Tales of
"Ms. Lillie's Pecan
Tree," "David-David-
David," and other folks
like John Henry, Annie Christmas and Sassafras, are complemented with songs and poetry.

DWe Williams

FEBRUARY 3, 2005

STORYTELLING MASTER CLASS

10:00 A.M.

RECITAL HALL

PUBLIC PERFORMANCE 7:30 P.M.

BEAN-BROWN THEATRE

FREE ADMISSION

RECEPTION FOLLOWING

Presented by Shelton State Community College as part of the annual "Realizing the Dream" events in cooperation with the University of Alabama and Stillman College. For more info call 205-391-2253.

SHELTON STATE

C O M M U N I T Y C O L L E G E

PRESENTS

DWe Williams

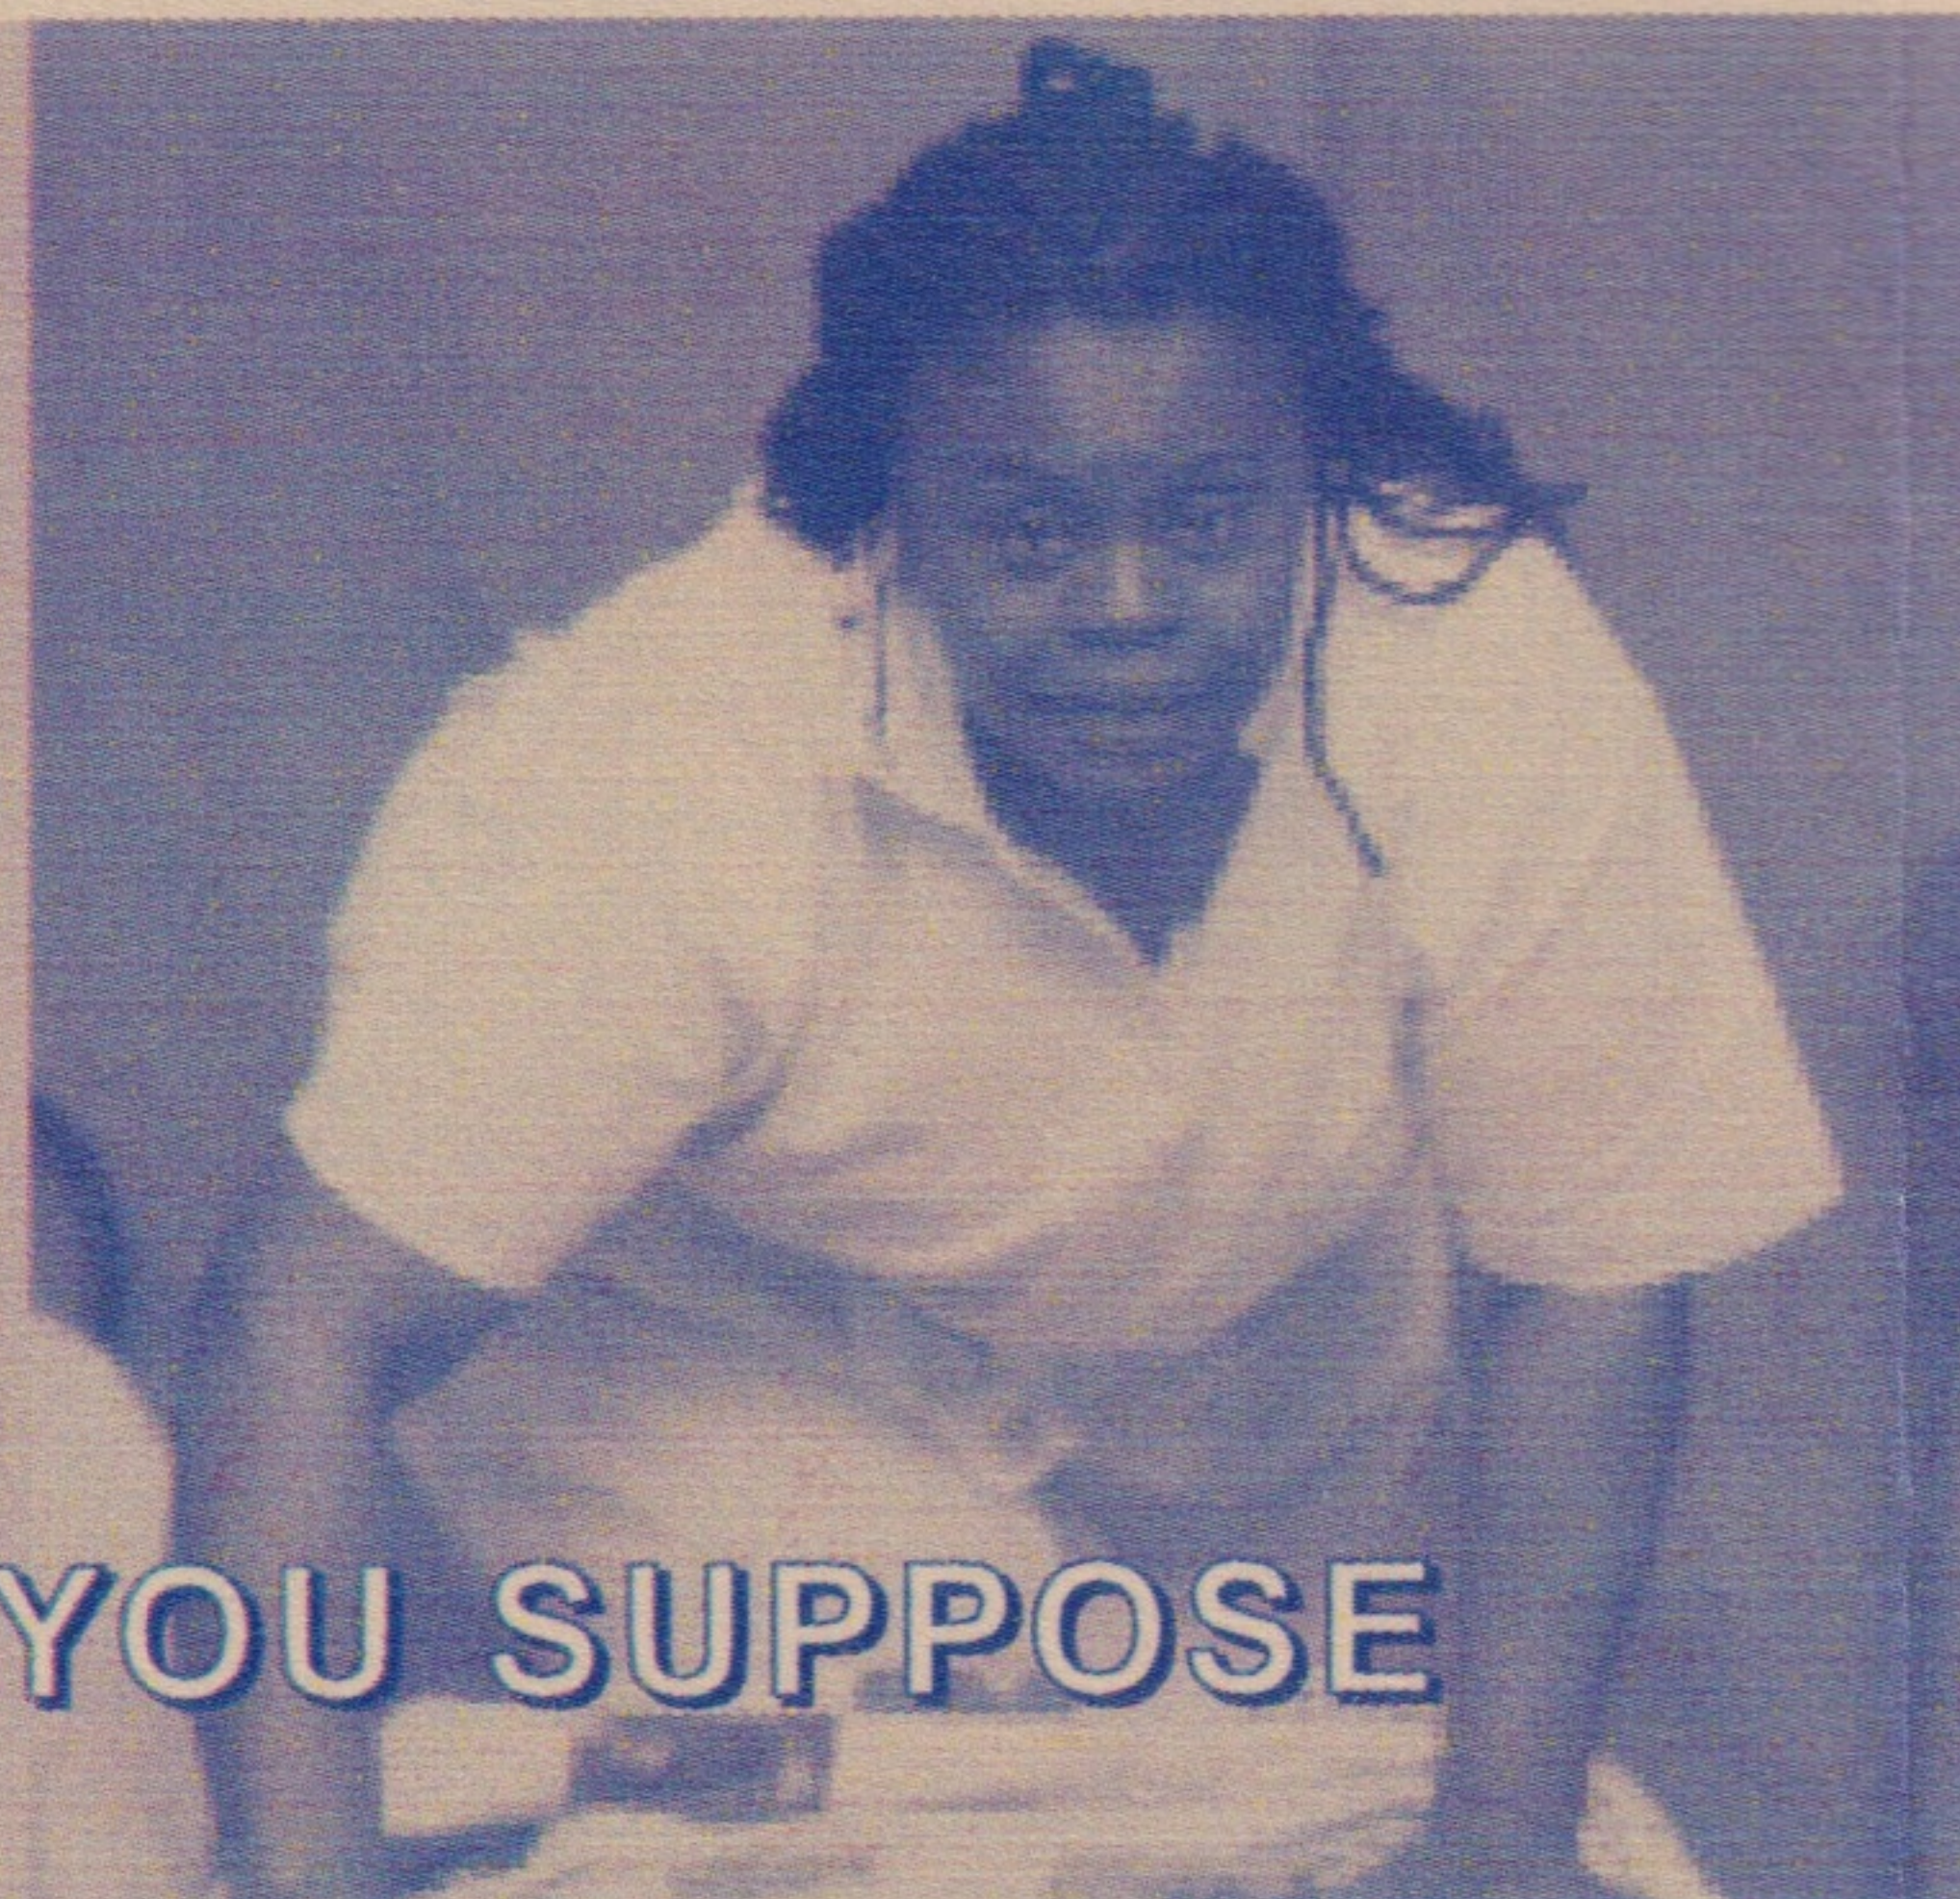

Presented by Shelton State Community College as part of the annual "Realizing the Dream" events in cooperation with the University of Alabama and Stillman College. Additional support provided by the Alabama Disabilities Advocacy Program.

SHE ALWAYS

THE RABBIT AND THE COON

JOHN HENRY

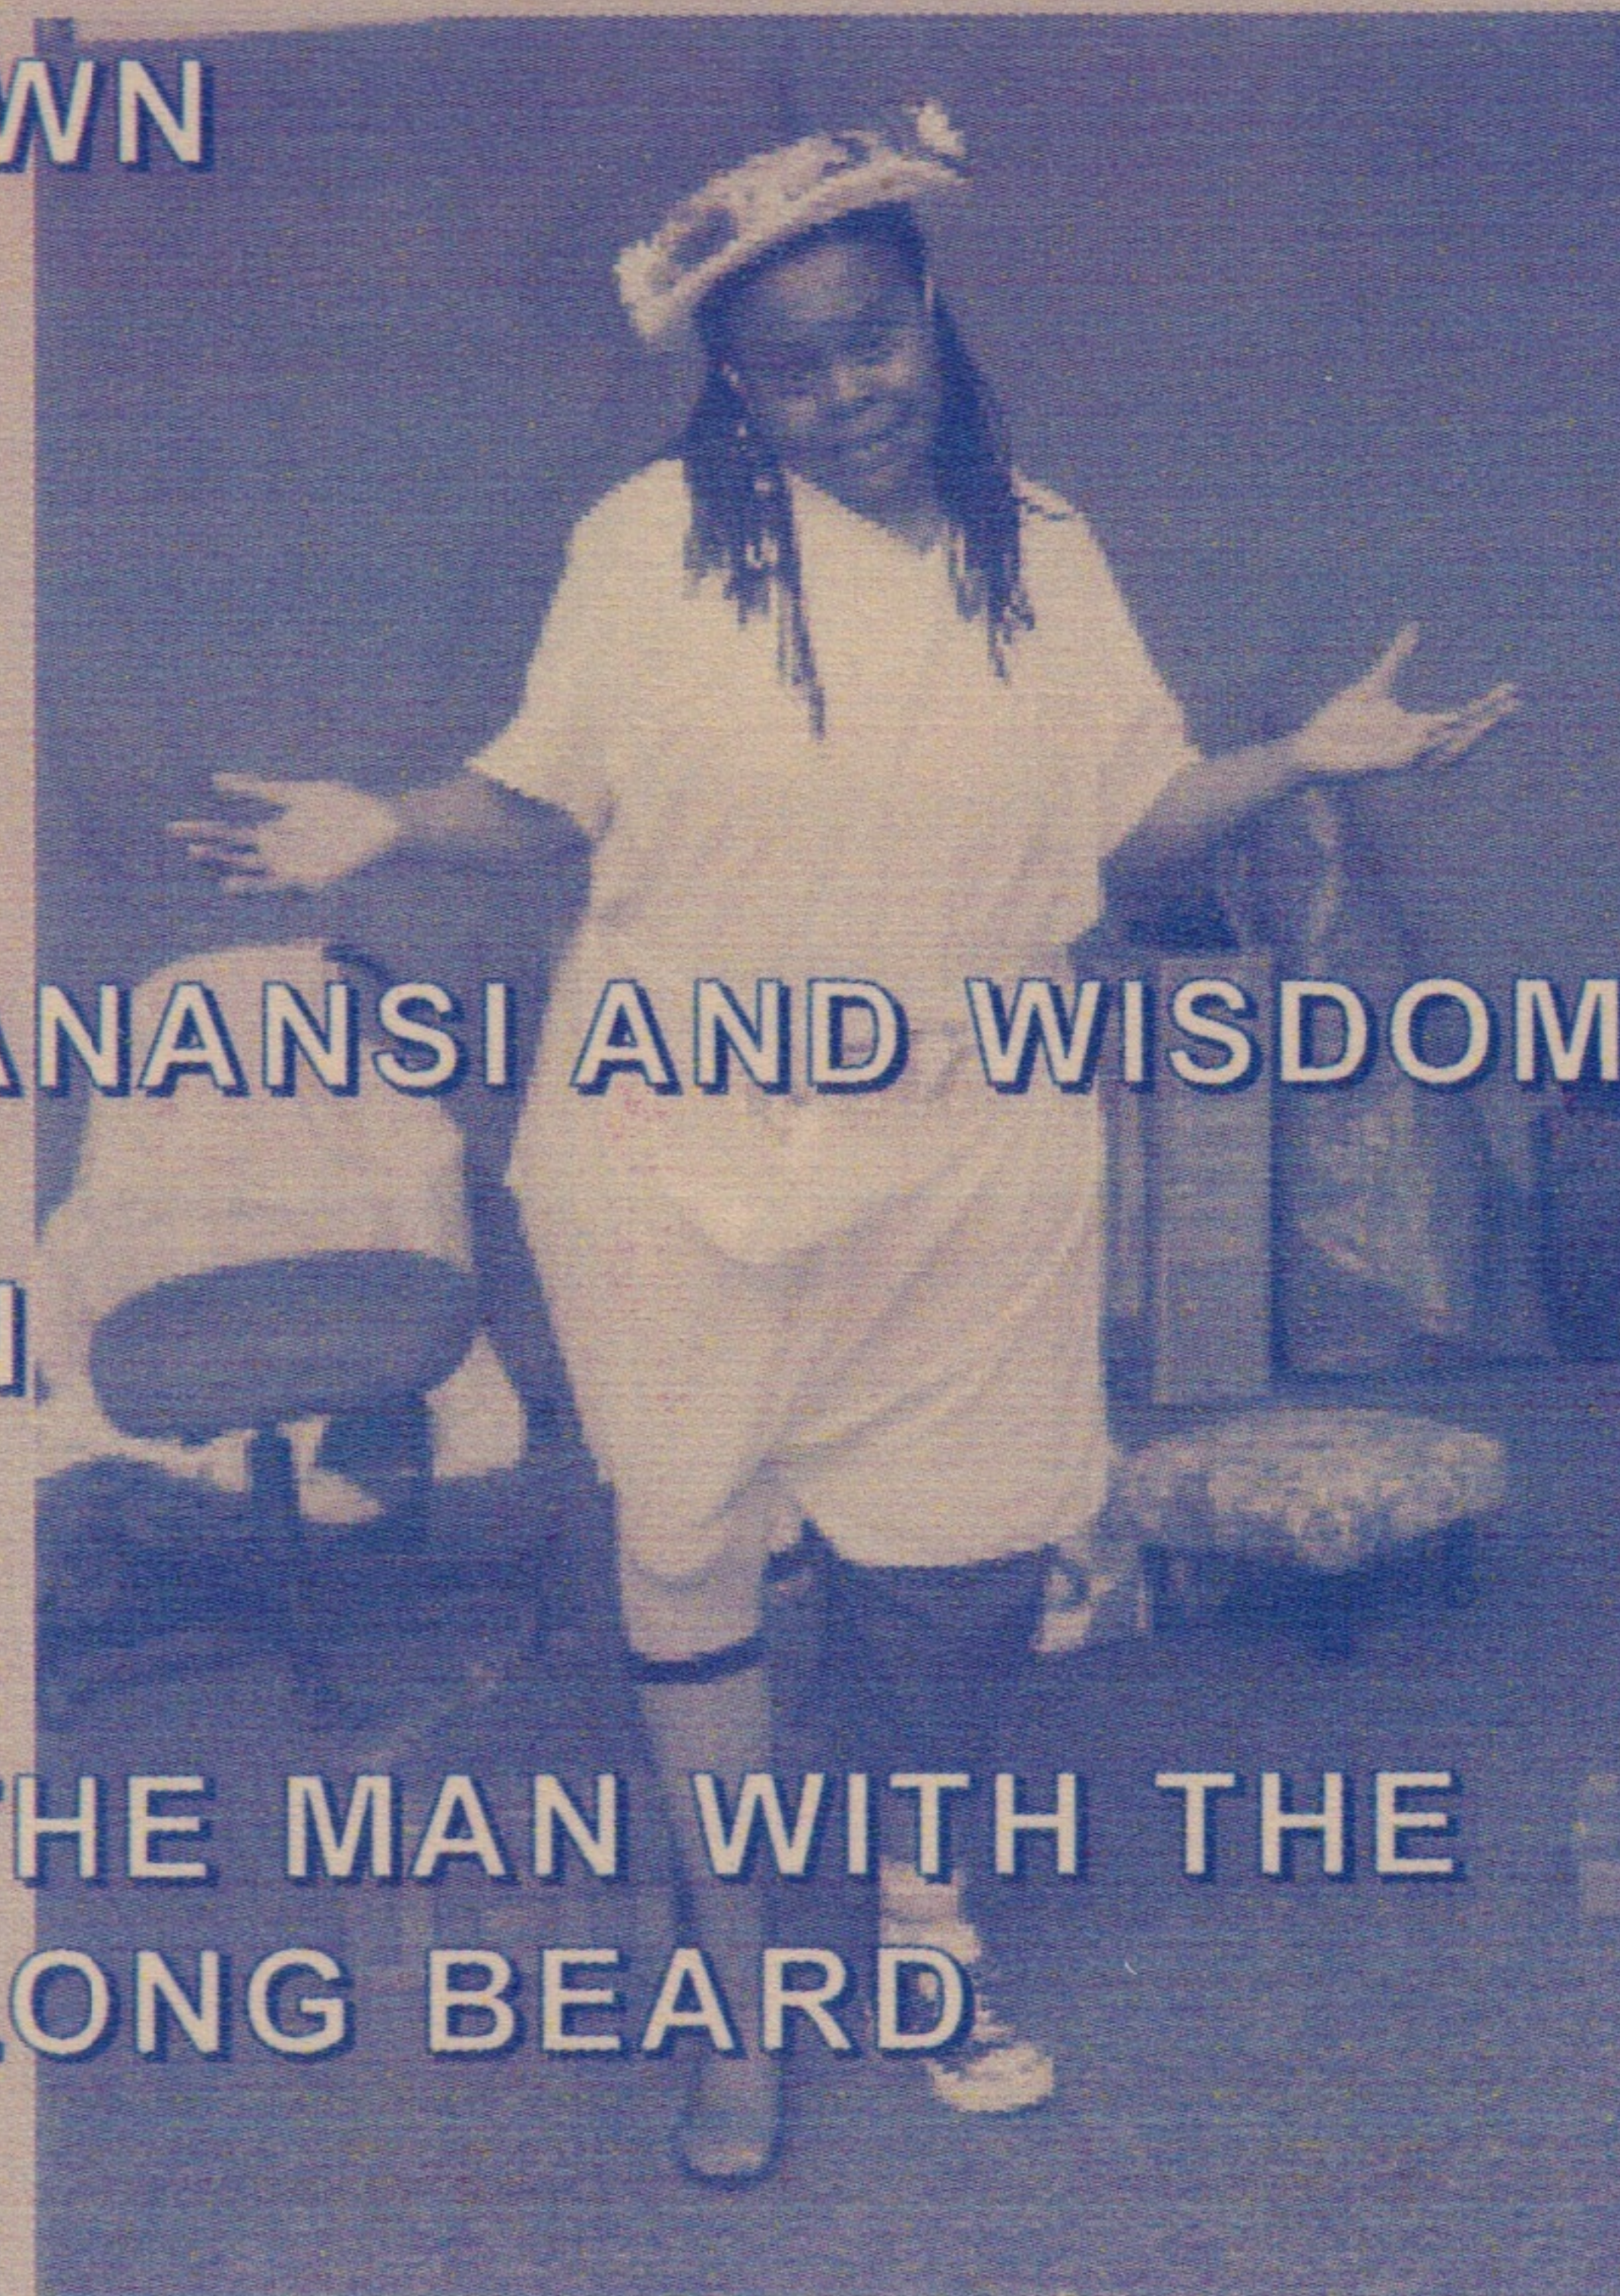

NOT SO WISE AS YOU SUPPOSE

BROOKSTOWN

MS. LILLIE'S PECAN TREE

BIDDY MASON,

ANANSI AND WISDOM

THE SNAKE AND THE FROG

HARRIET TUBMAN

THE MAN WITH THE LONG BEARD

FLYING TURTLE

DAVID, DAVID, DAVID

SASSAFRAS

EL CONEJITO

THE ROACH AND THE BIRD

DWe Williams is a single adoptive mother of seven. She has adopted "special needs" as well as typical children. Williams is an active advocate for the integration of "special" persons into the mainstream of society. She has received the Adoption Advocate of the year award from the North American Council on Adoptable Children and "The Celebration of Creative Families Award". As a lead teacher with the Oklahoma City Arts Council, Williams specializes in developing integrated arts activities for children with special needs. These activities are then refined for use with the general population. She holds a Master of Science with a double major in Theatre and Speech from Southern Illinois University and a Bachelor of Science in Speech and Theatre Education from North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University. She is Lead Teacher/Special Populations Component of the Arts After School Program for the Oklahoma City Arts Council, the Oklahoma State Representative to the North American Council on Adoptable Children, a presenter at "Another Choice for Black Children" Annual Adoption Conference. She was appointed by Governor Henry Bellman to the Oklahoma Planning Council on Developmental Disabilities. In 1995 she was honored with the National Jefferson Award for Community Service and the Oklahoma City "Five Who Care Award."

SHELTON STATE

C O M M U N I T Y C O L L E G E

BLACK HISTORY MONTH EVENTS 2005

February 1 - 1:00 P.M.

Vocal Performance by Bessie Hunter Shelton
Alabama Power Foundation Recital Hall

February 2 - 9:00 A.M.

Storytelling Performance for area schools by
DWe Williams

February 3 - 7:30 P.M.

Public Storytelling Performance by DWe Williams
Bean-Brown Theatre

February 9, 16, 23 - 2:30 P.M.

Black History of Tuscaloosa

Presented by Lawrence Mund Lifelong Learning Center
Unity Center - C.A. Fredd Campus
For more information call 391-2360

February 25 - 10:00 A.M.

C.A. Fredd Campus Celebration of Black History Month
Unity Center